

To all students:

TUAT Trustee for Education/Vice President

Third-Round Application for “Student Emergency Aid for Continuance of Studies”

In regard to this emergency aid, which is to support students, etc. who have difficulty in continuing their studies due to the impact of Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19), etc.; application for the third round is now available.

We will accept your applications as follows. We highly recommend you to apply.

※ If you had applied to the first or second round and had become a recipient of this aid already, you are not eligible for the third round. Please do not apply again.

※ International students who are funded by the Japanese government to study in Japan (Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship Students, etc.) are not eligible for this aid.

Emergency Aid Outline

○ Requirements for qualified recipients (you must be in one of the categories from 1. to 2.)

1. Those who fulfill criteria ① through ⑤ below

① As a general rule, those living outside the family house (or those living at the family house but financially independent from the household)

② Those who have not received a large amount of remittance (equivalent to/exceeding 1,500,000 JPY) from the household

③ Those who cannot expect to receive additional support from the household due to a decrease in the income of the household (at least one parent parent’s income decrease)

④ Those whose part-time job income was impacted by the coronavirus disease (COVID-19), and who is in one of 1) – 3) situations.

1) The situation has continued/will continue where the expected part-time job income was not obtained

2) Compared to the pre-COVID 19 pandemic, the part-time job income has decreased significantly (by 50% or more), and the situation has not improved in this fiscal year

3) Even though the part-time job income has increased or reached a certain level expected, it is still difficult to continue whose studies unless the part-time job income is to be increased, due to worsening of the family's economic situation, etc.

⑤ Those meeting one of the following conditions about the existing systems

1) You are an applicant for the New Higher Education Support System or plan to use the New System AND you have used your entire Category I scholarship (interest-free scholarship loans). (International students N/A)

2) You are not eligible for the New Higher Education Support System AND you have used your entire Category I scholarship (interest-free scholarship loans). (International students N/A)

3) You cannot use the New Higher Education Support System or a Category I scholarship (interest-free scholarship loans) because you do not meet the criteria, BUT you are using or plan to use a scholarship provided independently by your university or other educational institution, a support program provided by the private sector or Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship for Privately-financed International Students for which you are eligible to apply.

2. Those whose needs for financial support (otherwise difficult to continue their studies in universities, etc.) are recognized by TUAT after considering their applications based on 1. above.
